

GUIDELINES & COMPETITION OUTCOMES

Competition Outcomes

1. COW CAMP - This fun learning experience is open to junior members 8 years and younger. Crafts, games, snacks and showmanship will be included. Bring a paint shirt! Juniors may bring their own calf for showmanship and to enter in CLASS I of the conformation show and other classes at the family's discretion. The fee for Cow Camp and CLASS I is included in the $50 participant fee. Entry into other conformation classes is additional. Cow Campers are not required to bring an animal to participate.
2. PHOTOGRAPHY - The theme is Gelbvieh People - Each contestant is to submit a 4x6 unmounted photograph at the time of registration. The photo should show a Gelbvieh junior and/or family, friends, other junior members, etc involved in activities connected to the Gelbvieh breed. Entries may be emailed to canadianjrgelviehassociation@gmail.com or submitted in person during registration. Deadline to submit your photo is July 21 at 8:00 p.m.
3. TEAM GROOMING - Teams of 2 will work together to get an animal ready for the show ring. You are welcome to choose your partner or we can help you join a team. Each team will provide their own grooming supplies and power will be available.
4. MARKETING - The marketing competition will take the form of a job interview. Create a resume that shows your skills and experiences and come prepared to talk about the job you're applying for. You will sign up for an interview time at registration.
 - A) PEE WEE - You are applying for your dream job! Be sure to tell the judge what you want to be when you grow up and bring any props and materials that help share your idea!
 - B) JUNIOR - You are applying to be the Herdsman of a purebred operation where you will look after all aspects of operating the program.
 - C) SENIOR - You are applying to be an intern with the Canadian Roundtable for Sustainable Beef where you will be working with stakeholders to increase engagement in the organization. Conduct research to present why you should be hired.
5. SHOW TEAM JUDGING - Contestants will work in teams of 2 where one is the judge and one is the ring person. The judge will sort the class and give their comments while the ring person keeps the class organized. They are judged as a team.
6. SHOWMANSHIP - Contestants will be judged on their skills in the show ring.

Canadian Junior Gelbvieh Show

Stettler, Alberta July 22-24

Entry Deadline is June 26

General Guidelines

1. Exhibitor Age is determined as of January 1, 2022. Participants will fall into one of the following age divisions for all competitions:
 - Senior - 15-21 years of age
 - Junior 9-14 years of age
 - Pee Wee 6-8 years of age
 - Cow Campers Under 5 years of age
2. Entry is open to Canadian Junior Gelbvieh Association (CJGA) members only. Membership can be made prior to the event by calling Sarah at 403 250 8640 and paying the $10 membership dues.
3. Active Junior members will abstain from possession, use, or consumption of alcohol, tobacco, electronic cigarettes during the event.
4. Animals may be owned solely by the exhibitor, the family's ranch, co-owned with an immediate family member or the family's ranch.
5. Competitors DO NOT need to bring an animal in order to take part in the event.
6. Tattoos must be legible at check-in and match the animal's registration. Animals that do not meet these requirements will be reviewed by the junior board.
7. Exhibitors who need additional assistance with contests (such as reading, writing) may request assistance.
8. Parental involvement during the event is discouraged as much as possible.
9. The judge's decision is final in all contests.
10. All rules are at the discretion of the CJGA Board of Directors.

Other Details

1. Non-serviced camping is available at the Settler Ag Society.
2. The Host Hotel is Stettler Canalta. Rooms are held under Alberta Gelbvieh. Call 403 742 3371 to reserve. Rooms are also available at the Stettler Ramada.
3. Meals included in the participant fee are breakfast, lunch and supper on Friday, breakfast and lunch on Saturday.
4. The Canadian Gelbvieh Association Banquet is Saturday evening. Call Darrell Hickman at 780 581 4510 to get your tickets.
5. If juniors choose not to attend the banquet, activities and supper will be arranged for them.

Email canadianjrgelbviehassociation@gmail.com with any other questions!